

Chiropractor Makes Good

ANOTHER TESTIMONIAL TO THE HEALING POWER OF THE NEW CHIROPRACTIC SCIENCE.

SUCCESSES ASTONISH

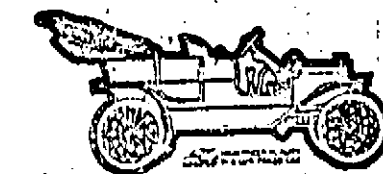

That the Chiropractor makes good is being evidenced by the testimony of his patients, who are not only cured of their ailments, but are also able to perform their duties with ease and comfort. The following are some of the cases treated by Dr. J. H. Puddicombe:

"I had a severe pain in my liver and every symptom of inflammation of the gall sac or gall stones, and was told the Chiropractor could give me relief. I went in a doubtful frame of mind as I could not see how such a cure could be effected without medical treatment. The result was beyond my belief. After taking three Chiropractic adjustments I was completely relieved of my trouble and have had no recurrence since that time."

If you have any ill or pain don't look away your money and time be treated with medicine of cure up by surgery, but come first to the man who makes sick people well without either, the Chiropractor who has made so many successes.

Old chronic cases of CATARRH, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, KIDNEY TROUBLE, LAME BACK, AND RHEUMATISM, BLADDER TROUBLE, HEART WEAKNESS, NERVE AND STOMACH TROUBLE, have been removed by the application of this wonderful theory of moving disease by removing the cause. If you suffer don't wait long or have your spine fixed up and be well. Consultation and advice free.

Ford Facts

Quality, not quantity, makes strength. Light weight is expensive, not cheap to build. Consider Vanderbilt, that giant of railroad development, once offered a carrying builder $1000 for each pound by which he was able to reduce the weight of a buggy. It is a mistake to consider light price as a result of light weight but that light weight is a result from know-how, from specialization, from quantity buying and producing and from system in production and selling. Light weight is the result of Mr. Ford's conviction that quality and design, not quantity and cost, are essentials of strength.

Brothers Fight; One Will Die.

Winchester, Ind., Oct. 20.—John Dull shot and fatally wounded his brother Marion Dull in a pistol fight near Unionport, a village five miles west of here. The trouble arose over the payment of a grocery bill. Both men are well-to-do citizens of the county. John Dull is under arrest.

Two Killed by Auto Wreck.

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 20.—Clarence A. Hunt, a well-known automobile man, and Dr. Edward Grove, of this city, were killed when the automobile in which they were riding turned turtle on a grade while they were speeding from Ramona to San Diego.

Sun Cooking.

A German, Baron Tegehhausen, was the first sun cook. He began in 1687 to boil water, and in 1688 he had very good success in boiling eggs. Sir John Herschel and others are other famous names associated with sun cooking. Sun cooking—roasting and boiling by sunlight instead of coal or gas—has been going on for three hundred years. There are sun stoves that roast a chicken or boil a soup to perfection. They are only used, however, by scientists.

WALTER WILKE IS NOW A FULL-FLEDGED ENGINEER

Former Fireman and Dispatcher Passes Engineers' Examinations Successfully.

Walter Wilke, former fireman and dispatcher, who went up for engineers' examination at Chicago several days ago, has just received word that he passed and has been given running rights on the road. He made a very creditable showing in the different tests, getting 100 in machinery and 98 in air.

To celebrate the event in fitting style, Engineer James Wilson, who is the proud owner of one of the fastest launches on the river, the "Holl Diver," planned and carried out a little surprise. A party of Wilke's friends, consisting of the owner of the launch, Fireman Roy Ulan, Engineer M. J. Dudley, William Grunsky of Chicago, and the guest of honor himself, went up the river to Camp Jula on a pleasure trip.

The trip, in addition to the avowed object of the expedition, contained a spice of revenge. Two of the guests had been delighted observers of the disastrous ending of a former trip, so to get even, the owner of the launch threw away the spark plug and compelled them to walk eight miles to town. The joke, however, was on him, for the victims managed to secure transportation at fifty cents each, while the perpetrators were forced to "hitch up" a dollar each.

Engineer Wilke has been bulletined for a position on the south end way freight, number 588 and 595, with Engineer Spohn.

ELABORATE SPECIAL TRAIN PASSED THROUGH THE CITY

Gorgeous String of Coaches Carried Head of Pennsylvania Ry. and Staff to Duluth.

One of the most gorgeous and elaborate trains that was ever seen in Janesville passed through the city this morning at 9:45. It consisted of twelve rail coaches, all steel, with elaborate brass trimmings, and carried President James McCreary of the Pennsylvania lines and personal staff. The train, which was made up of Pullmans, dining and buffet cars, and the president's private car, was in charge of Engineer Lertz and Conductor Novins. The party was enroute from Chicago to Duluth and Superintendent G. W. Dudley was a guest from Chicago to Janesville.

FREIGHT WRECK BARRINGTON TRAFFIC AT DANGER

Recipes for Melancholy.

Never give way to melancholy; resist it steadily, for the habit will encrease. I once gave a lady two and twenty recipes against melancholy; one was a bright fire, another to remember all the pleasant things said to and of her; another to keep a box of sugar plums on the chimney-piece and a kettle simmering on the hob. I thought this was trifling at the moment, but have, in after life, discovered how true it is that these little pleasures often banish melancholy better than higher or more exalted objects; that no means ought to be thought too trifling which can oppose it either in ourselves or others.—Sydney Smith.

"Squatted" in Empty Houses.

A woman who recently applied to the Lambeth guardians for relief said that for the last three months she and her five children had lived rent free by "squinting" in the rooms of empty houses. In Lambeth there are many such houses which have reverted to the duchy of Cornwall, and people are permitted to occupy the places until the premises are demolished.—London News.

Tensile Strength of Hair.

A human hair of average thickness can support a load of 6 1/2 ounces and the average number of hairs on the head is about 30,000. A woman's long hair has a total tensile strength of more than five tons, and this strength can be increased one-third by twisting the hair. The ancients made practical use of the strength of human hair. The cords of the Roman catapults were made of the hair of slaves, and it is recorded that the free women of Carthage offered their luxuriant tresses for the same use when their city was besieged by the Romans.—Scientific American.

Lieut. Shackleton as Talker.

People whom Lieut. Shackleton casually meets must be a trial to him with their trivial questions, but he has a merry wit. He was explaining how the penguins set up next hatching. Mr. Pongin would feed his wife as she sat on the eggs. He brought her prawns and the like, carrying them in his gullet into which she dipped her beak. "Are the birds monogamous?" asked the naturalist present. "That we could not determine," replied the Great Lieut. "We frequently saw a male penguin feed another bird's wife, but we could not say whether his motives were absolutely disinterested."</

THE NEW LAW

The new law which provides for city government, by commission is printed in another part of the paper, and should be carefully read by all taxpayers. It means a radical change from the present system, and yet a change which should be heralded with enthusiasm, for it accomplishes two or three things at least which have long been considered desirable.

In the first place it removes from city government that most disturbing element, "politics," and this alone is a strong argument in its favor. The commission composed of a mayor and two councilmen are elected by popular vote, and party lines are not recognized.

Then, too, it means placing the city government on a business basis, a most desirable proposition. The increased valuation of city property is something over $10,000,000. This represents a capital larger than the capital stock of the combined industries of the city.

Is there any reason why this great corporation with 2,500 shareholders should not be managed with the same degree of intelligence as the smaller corporation?

This is what the commission plan of government not only contemplates but accomplishes, and every city which has tried it is enthusiastic in its praise.

Four has been expressed that it might not be possible to select and elect three good men for these responsible positions, but that seems like begging the question. Janesville has 2,500 voters and 2,500 of them are real estate taxpayers, while a majority of the other 800 favor good government.

Under these conditions, and with politics removed as a factor, it should certainly be possible to concentrate effort and elect the best men in the city. Candidates will be carefully scrutinized both for ability and availability and the campaign will be a campaign of merit pure and simple, in which every good citizen can well afford to be interested.

Petitions will shortly be circulated, asking that the question be submitted to the people. They should be liberally endorsed by voters who are interested in the city's welfare.

SAVE THE BABIES

While the fight against the white plague is going on in all parts of the country, another humane campaign against ignorance in the care of babies has been inaugurated, and is rapidly developing under the direction of its founder, the "Delineator."

This work is known as the child rescue campaign, and in addition to finding homes for orphan children, its scope has been enlarged to establishing schools in several of the large cities for instruction to mothers in the care of children.

The work is now being extended and efforts made to organize the towns and smaller cities in a campaign of education. The following list of questions is sent out, and wherever interest is shown the Delineator outlines a plan for active work.

"One-third of the babies born in the United States die before they reach the age of five years. This fact points upon every adult the responsibility of doing something to prevent such a frightful loss of life to the nation. There is work for every one. The first step is to inform ourselves about conditions in our own community. Get the answers to the following questions:

"How many babies were born in your town last year?

"How many died under one year of age?—Of what did they die?"

"What are the agencies at work in your town to prevent infant deaths? Hospitals, infant milk depots, charitable associations, women's clubs, church societies? What does each do?"

"What health rights have you in your community? Clean streets? Clean air? Clean milk? Freedom from smoke, garbage and noise nuisance?"

"How does your town educate mothers?"

"Does the school hold parent-teacher meetings? How much time is devoted to infant hygiene?"

"Does your health department distribute pamphlets to mothers on 'How to Keep the Baby Well'? Does it send them in the hands of a teacher-nurse?"

"How many visiting nurses have you in your town? How many educate mothers in the care of babies?"

"How many teach pregnant women how to care for themselves?"

"What appropriations was made in your city budget for 1909 for the education of mothers and the care of babies?"

"What effort was made by citizens to secure such an appropriation?"

"What is the possibility of calling a conference in your town of mothers, women's club, social workers, health officers, school superintendents, physicians and nurses?"

"How many doctors are there in your town?"

"How many mothers could afford to pay ten dollars a month for systematic education in the care of babies?"

"How many mothers who could not afford this are already reached?"

"Ask all your local doctors and health inspectors whether they will not devote an hour a week to the class education of mothers."

"Ask your women's clubs and public spirited mothers and fathers to contribute ten dollars each toward a fund to start the school."

"Write the Delineator Conference the result of your investigation and ask us to make further suggestions and give practical help."

This is philanthropic work and entitled to every encouragement.

President Taft is being besieged by newspaper associations to give his influence to have the duty on print paper reduced to 32 per cent. Canada is not satisfied with the new tariff of 33.75 and proposes to retaliate by placing a duty on wood pulp which would prove a hardship to American mills. The latter are now between the devil and the sea with Canadian competition or Canadian duty as the only alternative.

The men representing the Rock River improvement company are enthusiastic and they represent a class of men that can not be accused of being visionary or impractical. The work in which they are engaged, while local in character, is a part of the great system which is just now commanding attention throughout the nation. The waterways are destined to become the great highways, and all the people will share in the benefits.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon endorses the new tariff bill and President Taft. Why shouldn't he? It is a republican measure signed by a republican president. He does not believe that a handful of insurgents, aided by Bryan, can stampede the country.

O Time! How rapidly it flies! Another year is near its close! A fellow doesn't realize how fast time's scotching until it's gone!

THE ALMANACS in its gone! I know this year will shortly go beyond our narrow mortal ken, for now the druggists start to show the almanacs for nineteen-ten. I have a hunch on my desk, and I have read them over and over—their dash of humor, Adamesque, commendable of days of yore. The same old people who endured about a thousand fatal illnesses, at last, at last have all been cured, by taking Dr. Hunko's Pink Pills.

I read about the ancient guy who had hunches in his head; the doctors gave him up to die; they doubtless wished that he was dead; when some kind neighbor buried him, and brought a golden rod of hope, that made the golden sick man grin, by telling of the doctor's dope. He took one box of Hunko's Pills (composed of tar and butter), and then he looked across the hills, and heled Jim Forties and Frank Geth. I read about the guy who bought Dr. Baker's Who of Glee and Pile of course the mixture hit the spot, and cured him of the barber's itch. The stories of the Brothers Grimm, and old Munchausen's cheerful cracks, and Aesop's yarns seem rather slim, beside those in the almanacs. So let us gather by the hearth when winter rages from his den, and read aloud with unselfish mirth the almanacs of nineteen-ten.

The Zappell Pear Tree. That pear tree with which Count Zappell's almanac lately came into collision has been sold to an aboriginal at Stuttgart. This artist proposes to work the tree up and sell the articles as souvenirs of the event in the form of backs for books, pin trays and rulers. Counterfeits of the same nature are already on the market.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

BE A BOOSTER.

Do not be a "knocker."

In the siege of Ladysmith during the Boer war a civilian was tried by court martial and imprisoned because he discouraged the soldiers who were defending the city.

The man would go along the picket line and say disheartening things to the men on duty. He told them the city was doomed. He scouted the suggestion of relief.

The court martial did right to put him in prison.

At such a time no one should be allowed to weaken the hearts of men. It is a pity every community cannot put in prison the man and woman who go about with gloomy faces and forebodings of failure ever upon their lips.

The knocker is a prophet of evil. He sees only the dark side of every cloud. Temperamentally he cannot forbear to throw cold water on general enthusiasm and to dampen ardor. He throws over all things, like a wet blanket, his doubts and questionings.

The knocker is a pessimist. Instead of trying to lift some of the burdens from the shoulders of the knocker puts on new burdens. Instead of clearing the way for weary feet he puts other obstacles in the path. Instead of easing the pains of the sufferer he helps to widen the wounds.

The knocker is a discourager. In every community men and women are defending their beleaguered cities of Ladysmith. Many of them are hard pressed, and some are on the point of defeat surrender.

He who goes along the picket line uttering the disheartening prophecies of failure that make heavy the hearts and paralyze the hands of the brave defenders is nothing less than a traitor to his race.

Men and women are brave and only need the boosting word of encouragement and good cheer.

There is a subtle force in suggestion. Use it to boost. Suggest happiness. Talk happiness. Let happiness beam from your face. Make men see the blue of the sky, the beauty of the flower.

And so shall you leave behind you everywhere a trail of brightness—a trail that shall grow brighter and brighter into the perfect day and light you to the Celestial City.

Sugar Eating.

There is too much fear of eating sweets. Sugar is fattening, but it has never been proved that the thin-skinned theories of its being ruinous to the system and digestion are anything more than theories.

There are certain conditions, such as diabetes and kidney troubles, that make sugar eating inadvisable. Ordinarily, unless one is trying to lose weight, by abstaining from all the joys of life, it is unnecessary to go without sugar on one's cereal, fruit, or in desserts and candies, except from motives of economy.

It has been said that an adult in good health may eat a quarter of a pound and benefit by it. This may preclude unlimited candy munching but it more than allows for the average sweetening of foods.

Increase of Railroad Mileage.

At the close of the fiscal year 1908 the railroad mileage of the United States was 230,000, as compared with 130,883 in 1885 and 184,618 in 1893. The net capitalization is $12,000,000, 012, an increase of 29.3 per cent over the figures of 1893.

The popularity of this ware has been growing rapidly during the past year and today it is fast taking the place of many pieces of decorative and table ware with the white metal basis. The plain lines of the thread border appeal to many while those who admire a more decorative finish can find beauty in the grape design. We are showing a number of new pieces which we have just placed in stock.

Case of Telepathy.
This is one of the many queer stories from Italy: A remarkable case attributed to telepathy is reported from Capua. A woman woke a few nights ago in a state of delirium. Calling together her friends and neighbors she told them that she had just seen an apparition of her husband, who for two years past had been absent in New York. He appeared to her to be lying in a hospital with one hand covering his breast, and he told her that he had been gravely wounded. The day after she received a cablegram from America informing her that her husband was dying, having been stabbed by an emissary of the "Black Hand."

KING ALCOHOL HAD SEVERAL DEVOTEES

Judge Fifield Kept Busy by Unusual Number of Offenders.

Eight devoted subjects of King Alcohol were caught in the meshes of the police drag net yesterday afternoon and last night and appeared in municipal court this morning to answer to charges of drunkenness. Out of the entire eight, only one was able to pay his fine. Two arrests were made from noon and midnight until midnight, an average of one an hour.

Most of those charged with drunkenness were non-residents. Ernest Ludgren of Rockford went to jail for five days. Klaus Dargren of the same city got the same sentence. Fred Petrov of Elgin paid a fine amounting to $3.10. Tom Johnson got seven days in jail for being a little too free with his tongue. Bernard Farley was sentenced to five days. C. V. Holman was given three days, and Torrey Caldwell, who had just finished serving time, got eight days. Mike Reilly, an habitual Joe Hornick and John Dene, two Italians, were allowed to go. Tom Connors was called up and notified that if he trespassed on the property of Mrs. Margaret Miller, he would be prosecuted under the criminal law.

BELOIT CRAZY OVER THE NATIONAL GAME

Town Given Over Entirely to Entertainment of Chicago "Cubs" Team Today.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Beloit, Oct. 20.—The coming of the Chicago Cubs to Beloit today well might have Beloit out of business as far as doing anything but go to the game. Everybody is a fan for the day. No one cares how the scores look for there is no one who thinks for a minute that Beloit has gathered a team that can play much ball against the famous Chicago team. Nevertheless the managers of the local team have a good line-up, including several professionals, who can bring out some of the talent of the Chicago team.

Youthful Thieves.

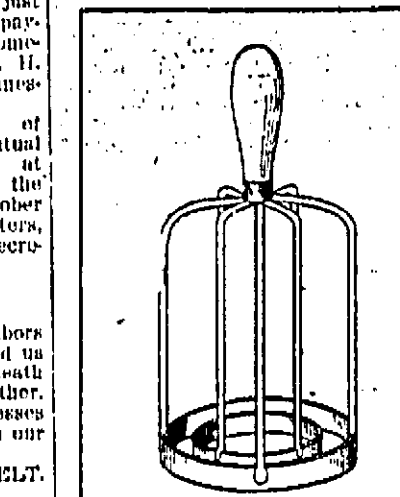

The police have in custody a pair of youthful burglars, boys under ten years of age. They broke into a school house and stole some money from a teacher's desk and the same night cut the telephone wire of a grocery store and were preparing to enter the store, when the proprietor came upon them. The kids had also stolen a football and a lot of toys. What will be done with them remains to be learned. The industry brothers and their parents are respectable.

The business men's club is holding today to secure a suitable building in which to house a good mattress factory to be moved here from Kenosha. A. P. Warner, one of the Warner instrument company men, is behind the project.

CHOPPING KNIFE

Useful for Chopping Meat or Vegetables or Cutting Dough.

No, this is not a bird cage. Another tradition, it is a chopping knife designed for a Colorado man and a strong and effective implement it is. The blades, as will be observed, are circular and are attached to the handle by heavy curved arms. When this tool is brought either on a piece of meat or a head of cabbage it speedily converts the objects into shreds. In most cases chopping knives are made with single, or at best, double blades. It will be readily seen that a circular blade will do much more work than one or two straight ones. Another use for this cutter is in cutting dough for doughnuts, cookies or other, circular cakes. Though in ordinary round cakes the inside ring will form the cake while the hoop of dough that is left over either is baked into a hoop of cake or the over dough is cut up and used in a variety of ways.

Turkish "Bird's Milk."

"I fer him birds' milk." This curious expression was used by the old sultan of Turkey while a prisoner on his way to Saloniki, with reference to his brother Mohammed, his predecessor on the throne. Abdul Hamid was lamenting his own fate and telling his captors how little he deserved it and how kind he had been to his brother. "I fed him with birds' milk," he said, as if that were the greatest kindness he could show. What is birds' milk? Not the Turkish equivalent of the milk of human kindness, but a European brand of condensed milk bearing on the can a picture of a bird on a nest.

Want Uniform Measures.

A movement which will meet a warm welcome among housekeepers and commission merchants is that which the International Apple Shippers' association will take up at its forthcoming meeting in Buffalo. It is to bring about the standardization of boxes and barrels in which fruits and vegetables are packed, and is along the lines of bills prepared for introduction in congress. There is no good reason why there should not be uniformity in weights and measures throughout the country. It is held, and there is a hope that it will be brought about by law, strictly enforced.

★ FORTY YEARS AGO ★

Janesville Daily Gazette, October 20, 1869.—Accident.—A boy by the name of Honesey fell off from a wheel in the rear of the Claw Reaper Works and broke his arm yesterday afternoon.

Visit Of D. L. Moody.—A large meeting was convened at the Baptist church last evening under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., to listen to the stirring words of D. L. Moody of Chicago, who, as usual, was overflowing with zeal and love for the Master and the souls of men. Many who heard him went away with a quickened desire to lead their fellow men to the Savior of sinners.

The Sunday Ordinance.—Our readers will remember that some time ago the Common Council passed an ordinance requiring all persons keeping saloons in this city, to refrain from selling liquor, and further, required them to keep the doors of their places closed and fastened on Sunday, so as to prevent persons from going in or out on that day. Sometime after the passage of that ordinance it was found that it was being violated, and prosecutions were instituted under it, against Thomas Dodge and others, before Judge Hudson. The ordinance was attacked by the attorney for the defendant as being in excess of the power granted to the Common Council by the charter, as contravening the law of the State, as being unconstitutional and void, and as being unreasonable and oppressive. The Justice, however, found the ordinance to be good and valid, found the defendant guilty of violating it, and imposed upon him a fine of twenty-five dollars. The defendant not being satisfied with the decision of the Justice, immediately took appeal to the Circuit Court, where the case was again argued and submitted at the last term. Yesterday the city attorney received the opinion of Judge Lyons which affirms the judgment of Justice Hudson and sustains the ordinance. John Williams argued the case in behalf of the defendant and Mr. Sale, the city attorney, spoke for the city.

OBITUARY.

Israel Hohnshelt
Israel Hohnshelt, one of Hanover's oldest citizens, died at his home in Hanover Thursday, Oct. 14, at 11:30 a. m., after a long illness. Mr. Hohnshelt was born in North Hampton county, Pennsylvania, Sept. 15, 1831. In 1847 he came to Wisconsin with his parents. On June 17, 1856, he was joined in holy matrimony to Miss Caroline Savary. Six children blessed this union. His wife and four children preceded him in death. In 1862 the deceased enlisted in the army. On May 29, 1862, he was united in marriage to Eliza J. Barnum and since that time has made his home in Hanover. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, two daughters—Mrs. Byron Bartholf of Tacoma, Wash., and Mrs. Penman, two sisters—Mrs. Houch and Mrs. McIntosh, and one brother—G. Hohnshelt. The funeral services were conducted from the home and then from the Lutheran church, Rev. Schafer of Orfordville officiating. The remains were laid to rest in the Plymouth cemetery. The pallbearers were: C. W. Butler, G. J. Butler, P. E. Butler, A. McIntosh, U. Arnold and W. Schumann.

William Hahn.
Clinton, Oct. 19.—Clinton is mourning the loss of one of her most beloved and highly respected citizens, William Hahn, who died this afternoon at 1:30 at his farm west of town. He has been ill for some time, but about two weeks ago he began to grow rapidly worse. Doctors Pomeroy and Mills of Janesville were called in consultation with our Clinton physician, but could give him no aid, nor the family any encouragement. Mr. Hahn was one of the foremost leaders of our German people and was very active and influential in the church. He will be sadly missed by a very large circle of friends and relatives. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

George Henry Proper.
George Henry Proper died last evening at six o'clock at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Cleland, in Shopiere, after an illness lasting about three weeks. He was born in Janesville, Nov. 27, 1875, and was a son of David and Anna Proper. He leaves to mourn his loss three sisters, Miss Leonidas Proper and Mrs. May McCue of Chicago, and Mrs. William Cleland of Shopiere.

The funeral will be held Friday at 12 o'clock from the Cleland home in Shopiere. Archdeacon Willman will officiate and the remains will be brought here for interment in Oak Hill cemetery.

John J. Smith.
The funeral of John J. Smith was held this afternoon at one-thirty o'clock from the home of Joseph Connors, 209 Cherry street, Rev. T. D. Williams officiating. The services were private. The remains were taken overland to Johnston for burial there. The pallbearers were: Will Bowen, Joseph Connors, George Davis, and R. E. Crosby.

Mrs. Katherine McCarroll.
Mrs. Katherine McCarroll died yesterday afternoon at half past four o'clock at the home of her brother, James Harty, 333 Lincoln street. She was the widow of the late Michael McCarroll and was eighty-four years of age at the time of her death. The funeral will be held at nine o'clock Thursday morning from St. Patrick's church. The body will be taken to Edgerton for interment.

Mrs. Hattie Church
The obsequies for Mrs. Hattie Church were held this morning at nine o'clock from St. Patrick's church. Rev. Fr. Collins of Fond du Lac celebrated the mass and preached a very touching sermon. The funeral was a very large one, many of her friends from Fond du Lac and Duluth coming down to be present at the services. There were also a large number from Janesville who were in attendance. The floral tributes of the bereaved friends were most beautiful in design and profuse in number. The remains were placed in the chapel at Mt. Olivet cemetery to remain until the arrival of her brother, Arthur J. Ryan, who is expected here from the West this evening. The pallbearers were all first cousins of the deceased. They were Edward P. Ryan, William Crowley, Leo Crowley, Ward Ryan, James H. Ryan, and Edward Meehan.

Mrs. Jane B. Kingsley.
Funeral services for Mrs. Jane B. Kingsley will be held tomorrow morning at 10:30 from Oak Hill chapel.

CHILD POINTS OUT MURDERER.

Man Accused of Crime Against Three Little Girls by One of Survivors.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 20.—A number of dramatic incidents marked the first day of the trial of Theodore Rizzo for the atrocious gulf murders, and the climax was reached when little Fanny Infusino, the surviving victim of the tragedy, went upon the witness stand and, after telling of the horrible details of the crime, rose from her chair and pointed to Rizzo as the murderer. Rizzo cowered under the charge with blanched face and eyes bulging. According to the child's story, the motive of the man in bringing the three children to the gulf was a fouler one than murder, and the threats of the children to expose him caused the fiend to shoot all three.

Kills Self After Gambling.
South Bend, Ind., Oct. 20.—Despondent over the loss of his wages at roulette in a local gambling-house, Clarence McDowell, 25 years old, an expert watchmaker, who came here from Elgin, is believed to have committed suicide by jumping into the St. Joseph river. The mystery of his disappearance is thought to have been solved by the finding of his coat and hat on the Grand Trunk railroad bridge.

First Woman Juror.
Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 20.—For the first time in California, a woman was sworn in to serve as a juror, when Mrs. Johanna Engelman of Santa Monica took her place in the jury box of the superior court of Los Angeles county.

We take pleasure in bringing to your notice the following announcement of our exposition of

DRY GOODS FOR THE FALL OF 1909

With plans in all sections so perfected as to give new demonstrations of the far-reaching possibilities of this store in the selection and development of merchandise. Our method of doing business, turning our stock over in every department from five to six times a year, enables us never to have to resort to the unpleasant task of trying to create a demand for passe goods. Another thing the public seem to appreciate is the fact that when they come here to be waited on they find a clerk that knows to a certainty just what they have in their department and know also from the manner in which it is selling that it must be better value than can be obtained at a store where one clerk takes you clear through and knows that their salary depends largely on gaining your friendship and getting the outside prices for goods. You are paying for nothing of this kind here, but all for goods—getting them quickly from a person that knows nothing about what you buy in the remainder of the store, but each one gives all their attention to having the best and latest things possible in their line, at prices that will draw and hold trade. Therefore you find nothing but NEW, BRIGHT and FRESH GOODS here. We buy almost all goods direct from mills and save the jobber's profits. This, together with the fact that our location is out of the high rent district and our expenses are so much smaller than any store in the city, doing anywhere near our volume of business, enables us to offer money-saving opportunities to our trade. Many appreciate this and it has much to do with the large increase of business each season this store has received since moving in our present location. We mention below only goods that are in urgent demand at present and in face of the great advance in price of cotton, linen and wool, the following should be interesting. These prices are not quoted for one week or two week sale, but are our regular asking prices for these goods and substantiate the above claims.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

Is there anything much less attractive than a child that is continually thinking of its clothes?

I often look at a crowd of women gathered for an afternoon tea or similar function and think how much time and thought, how much deciding and desiring went into each one of those gowns.

And considering how much most of us live in the eyes and opinions of other people, and considering how much other people are affected by this outer layer, it seems to be more or less an inevitable state of affairs.

But it doesn't need to begin in childhood.

A child that thinks continually about his clothes is an anomaly. One likes to think of a child as something sweet and natural and unconscious like a flower. To hear one of these human flowers in a temper because it can't wear its white dress or its pink sash is almost as jolting as it would be if one could hear a pink rose fretting because it wanted to be white.

A preference for a pretty new dress or a frock of some favorite color is natural, of course, in any child. But for a child to be perpetually asking: "What dress can I wear?" is very far from natural.

Last summer I visited a camp where the mothers of the tenements who could not otherwise have a vacation were invited to come and spend two restful weeks, bringing with them the children too small to be left at home.

For these children the society which managed the camp supplied little dark colored gingham jumpers so that the washing the mothers had to do could be minimized.

And—will you believe me?—half of those children—all less than about seven years old—were so particular about their clothes that they simply wouldn't wear those jumpers.

I should like to have given those children all a good old-fashioned spanking.

Though really the mothers were the ones who deserved it for having allowed such a state of affairs to come about.

I was at a home the other day where the mother's usual reward is, "If you'll be good, I'll let you wear your blue dress and white shoes and stockings."

I think that is wicked.

It is appeals like that which arouse and foster a child's vanity.

Avoid them as you would appeals to selfishness or deceitfulness or any other bad tendency.

And when you find it cropping up without any assistance on your part—when you find that one of the chief questions of the day to your five or six or seven-year-old girl is, "What can I wear today?" I think it's a case for strenuous measures.

Which means—well translate those last two words the way you like best.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Rev. J. C. Hazen returned from Green Bay last night after spending the day there.

Dr. J. W. St. John left yesterday on a hunting trip through the northern woods.

J. C. Root and T. D. Woolsey of Deloit were in this city yesterday on legal business.

Attorney Ray W. Clarke is entertaining his sister, Mrs. S. W. Clark, of Independence, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Ignace A. Fathers left today for the northern part of the state where Mrs. Fathers will visit friends in Oshkosh, and Mr. Fathers, who is vice president of the board of directors of the Odd Fellows' home at Green Bay, will attend a meeting of the directors.

Gown of Watavia Cloth

An extremely pretty frock of cloth, in the shade of purple called Watavia, accompanies this. All shades with a purplish cast promise to be the vogue this year, more especially if the gown is for slightly formal wear. The trimming motif of the frock above was hands of the material, and applied to form a bib effect on the bodice and a panel at the front of the skirt. These hands also adorned the sleeves and outlined the lace plastron. The bodice was laid in pleats, and the skirt was covered and slightly long. Cloth-covered buttons assisted in trimming.

SLEUTHS ARE NOW SEARCHING FOR MARTIN

Informers on Operations of Crafters Disappear After Repudiating His Confession.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Nicholas J. Martin, the private secretary to Alderman Kenna, who disappeared shortly after he had repudiated his confession made to State's Attorney Wayman in connection with the jury-fixing scandal, is being eagerly sought for by detectives from the prosecutor's office.

Additional revelations of the scope of the confessions made by Martin explain the anxiety of State's Attorney Wayman to keep Martin in Chicago, as well as the fright of the cabal that is said to have raised $25,000 to induce Martin to flee.

According to these revelations, Martin in his confessions not only barred the whole jury-fixing conspiracy, but took the lid off the cauldron of First ward graft and ballot frauds.

He is said to have spent several weeks in the employ and on the payroll of the state's attorney's office, going over in detail with Mr. Wayman and his aids the operations of the graft ring that has been laying more than $200,000 annual tribute on the all-night saloons, the resorts and the concert halls of the Twenty-second street vice district and in exposing the operations of the election frauds by which the First ward bosses have entrenched themselves in power.

Mr. Wayman declared that he was well satisfied as to the identity of the man responsible for Martin's disappearance and that if he did not soon reappear he would take steps to have the responsible parties, who are said to be well-known politicians, indicted on charges of interfering with justice.

A quarrel over the division of graft money collected from gamblers and dives in portions of the First ward precipitated Martin's confessions, according to attaches of State's Attorney Wayman's office. In fact, the complete history of Martin's confession was revealed for the first time.

WILL OPPOSE ADVANCE IN RATES

Commercial Organizations Take Steps to Inaugurate Vigorous Opposition.

Cincinnati, Oct. 20.—That any proposed general advance in freight rates will disturb existing business conditions and that such an advance is not justified and will be vigorously contested by the leading shippers' organizations of the country was the tenor of resolutions adopted at a meeting of representatives of shippers and other commercial organizations from many parts of the country, held in the Shulton hotel here.

The day was devoted to a discussion of the freight situation and it was determined to at once inaugurate a strong movement in opposition to the contemplated advance in rates, a committee being created whose duty it shall be to propagate a campaign of education of the public on freight rates, and to have all of the powers of the general conference in dealing with that subject.

RESOLUTIONS ON FERRIER 'MURDER'

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL FEDERATION OF LABOR DENOUNCES SHOOTING OF FERRIER.

CALL EXECUTION MURDER

They Declare Liberty of American Citizens Is Only Secure When Trial by Jury in Open Court Is Guaranteed.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The executive council of the American Federation of Labor have adopted resolutions emphatically denouncing the "murder" of the Spanish educator and revolutionist, Prof. Francisco Ferrer, who was recently shot at Barcelona. The resolutions refer to Ferrer as a "martyr" and declare his martyrdom has given "the cause of liberty a great impetus, not only in Spain and other European monarchial countries, but everywhere that human aspiration for freedom yet seeks attainment."

"We on our own personal behalf as well as in the name of America's workers and the whole people," the resolutions declare, "express our intense indignation, horror and our strongest protest against the murder of Francisco Ferrer by direction of the Spanish government."

Significant Paragraph.

Taken in connection with the action of the supreme court of the District of Columbia in sentencing President Gompers, Secretary Morrison and John Mitchell of the American Federation of Labor to serve terms in jail for contempt of court, the concluding paragraph of the resolution is looked upon here as significant. It declares that "we take this occasion of the military murder of a man whose real offense was speaking, writing and teaching humanity to become more wise, more free and more liberty-loving, to remind the people of our own country that the liberty of the citizen is only secure when trial by jury and in open court for any alleged offense involving punishment is guaranteed."

The resolutions go on to declare that "the cause of free speech, free press and free education has found in Ferrer another martyr, the more regrettable in an age when civilization boasts of having replaced the tortures and brutality of medievalism by toleration and freedom and enlightenment."

Sacrifice Not in Vain.

The belief then is expressed that Prof. Ferrer will take rank with all those who have done the greatest service for humanity. "A noble company of martyrs and a cause in which a man might well give his life," the resolutions continue, "did tyranny require it. Like Jefferson, Washington and Lincoln of our own country, he labored and taught and suffered that the people might have wisdom and be worthy of freedom." Declaring that though Ferrer suffered the ultimate penalty of a shameful death at the hands of those who rule in the doctrine of the "divine right of kings," the belief is expressed that the sacrifice was not in vain.

In its preamble to the resolutions the executive council declares that the execution of Prof. Ferrer has aroused the strongest indignation of all just, liberty-loving and broad-minded men of the civilized world.

Among other matters which received the consideration of the executive council was a brief resumé by President Gompers on his observations regarding labor conditions abroad.

GOVERNMENT IS DEFRAUDED.

Inspector Bares Scheme of Customs Frauds—Involves Importers.

New York, Oct. 20.—A scheme of customs frauds whereby the United States government was defrauded of $200,000, or more, at a clip, extending over a period of two years or more, was described by George Brehm, a customs inspector, who, although still in the government employ, admitted that he had received approximately half of the importers' alleged ill-gotten gains. Brehm's testimony was presented at the trial of Antonio and Philip Stulen, Italian importers, who are charged with having conspired to defraud the government by having cheese shipped to them from Italy under false weight entries.

The witness admitted that he had been promised immunity by officers of the customs service, and he not only described his grafting unhappily, but also implicated in his story a number of other customs employees, including foremen, to whom he said he had given a share of the money in order to make things "nice and agreeable." These employees, he said, understood where the money which they received came from.

Pittsburg Has Big Fire.

McColl Lumber Company and the United Planing Mills Company, adjoining the Means concern, and destroyed the three plants. The loss is estimated at $275,000.

FORGERIES MAY REACH $350,000

Framingham, Mass., Treasurer Pleads Not Guilty to Uttering Forged Notes.

Framingham, Mass., Oct. 20.—Proposed up on pillows in his bed at his home here, Town Treasurer John B. Lombard pleaded not guilty to a charge of forging two instruments, purporting to be notes of the town, amounting to $50,000, and waiving the reading of the complaint, was held in $20,000 for the superior court.

Lombard, who has been ill for several weeks, was unable to go to the courthouse, so the brief session of court was held in his own bedroom.

The two Boston brokers arrested in connection with the case, Charles S. Cummings and Edward A. Mead, were held in $20,000 and $5,000 bonds respectively on a charge of larceny.

The total outstanding securities of questionable character thus far brought to light is $125,000.

That the forgeries aggregate $325,000 was the statement of a leading town official. The official also said: "God only knows how many forgeries were committed. When this affair is unraveled it will be found that its parallel was never equaled in Massachusetts. However, I am confident that the town will not lose a single nickel."

Court Authorizes Bond Sale.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 20.—An order authorizing Bank Commissioner Young to sell bonds and warrants of the defunct Columbia Bank and Trust Company to the amount of about $200,000, and apply the proceeds to paying depositors' claims on that institution, was issued by District Judge Clark. Commissioner Young declared the defunct bank had not sufficient funds to pay its depositors and that he asked for the order because he did not want to draw too heavily on the state guaranty funds.

Anti-Horse Thief Association.

Pittsburg, Kan., Oct. 20.—President N. J. Randall of Cherokee asked to order at ten o'clock this morning the annual meeting of the Kansas Anti-Horse Thief association. The sessions are being held in the La Bolla opera house and the attendance is large. The local Ladies' Social and Aid society of the A. H. T. A. is entertaining many mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of the members, who number in Kansas about 20,000. The meeting will last through Friday.

Franks Created by Man.

In the vicinity of Dulles can be found trees that many would think franks of nature. Such they are, but they are created by the hand of man.

According to the stories of some of the old-timers these trees are much older than the present generation has any idea of and at one time served as Indian guide posts. It is said that in the early days, when the Maumee valley was one vast woods, the Indians bent these saplings to indicate certain paths. The trees, because of their deformity, grow slowly, and although they are many years old never attained the size of their brethren in the forests.

The Art Store DIEHLS

IN THE BOUDOIR

The latest thing in brushes for the hair is the pneumatic brush, to remove dust and dandruff. Indeed, so intense grows the warfare on dust that some enthusiasts predict a revolution of the hair service and say that no longer will the time honored phrase "dust to dust" be used. That is, the question of dust is one that is interesting not only to the student of hygiene, but the scientist and inventor as well. The new brush takes all the dust from the body and from the hair, if used as directed the custom of washing the hair every two weeks will be revolutionized and once in two or three months will be all that cleanliness will call for.

For the bath comes a brush that has a series of perforations all connected with a rubber tube which can be slipped over the water faucet and through spraying of the body be had without wetting the hair which was always the woman's objection to the usual shower bath. With this outfit a shower bath may be taken in the room and it will be a boon to the working girl who has neither time nor opportunity to take the daily bath so necessary to perfect health and cleanliness. Where there is not running water in the room a tank may be used and the water may be cold or warm as the bather pleases.

FRIENDS ENTERTAIN PROSPECTIVE BRIDE

Miss Cora Soverhill Guest of Honor at Functions Given by Mrs. Nolan and Church Club.

In honor of Miss Cora Soverhill, who will be married on Oct. 2 to Charles Starr Atwood, Mrs. T. S. Nolan of Wisconsin street gave a towel shower last evening at which a number of Miss Soverhill's friends were present. Following an elaborate dinner, which was served amid table decorations of yellow roses and aqua-agave ferns, the evening was spent in playing cards. Those present were: The Misses Cora Soverhill, Florence Lacey, Verma Bondson, Miss Soverhill, Lacy, Abbie Atwood, Edith Soverhill, Pearl Peters, Ida Green, Lilla Soverhill, Charlotte Mount, Jean Shearer and Gladys Haddies.

Monday afternoon, Miss Soverhill was the guest at a kitchen shower given by the members of the Congregational Twenty club of the Congregational church at the home of the Misses Bennett on Milton avenue. The house decorations elaborately carried out a color scheme of pink and white and the function was a novel one in every respect. Refreshments brought an enjoyable afternoon to a close.

That Little Hacking Cough

Hard coughs are bad enough, to be sure. But it's often the little, hacking, tickling, persistent cough that means the most, especially when there is a history of weak lungs in the family. What should be done? Ask your doctor. He knows. Ask him about the formula on the label of every bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask him if this medicine has his full approval for throat and lung troubles. Then do as he says.

vene here next week and will be an occurrence of unusual interest to the public, but more especially to those of the Catholic belief. The meetings will be held in St. Paul's church commencing Sunday, Oct. 21. A series of free lectures will be given every evening throughout the week by the Rev.
Father David Johnson and Father
O'Malley. The object of the mission is to create religious fervor and give instruction to the parishioners and the people generally. With this object in view Father Johnson will conduct an inquiry class every evening at seven o'clock before the lectures. There will be mass every morning at five o'clock to accommodate those who work throughout the day, and nine o'clock mass for those living in the country.
The subjects of the lectures will appear tomorrow.

J. H. S. VS. WHITEWATER
HIGHS ON SATURDAY

Two Football Eleven Will Clash on Field at Athletic Park Next Saturday.

Next Saturday afternoon the Janesville high school football team will play with the Whitewater high school eleven at Athletic park in this city.
The game promises to be an excellent one, fast and exciting at all times.
From a comparison of the games played, it would appear that the Janesville boys and a little advantage over the Whitewater aggregation, the Janesville having defeated Whitewater high by a much larger than score than they rolled up against Janesville.
However, this is an uncertain method of comparison.

Sixteen or seventeen players have appeared at practice every night, so that a good scrimmage is possible and the team is coming into form for next Saturday's contest.

A third game with the Southern Wisconsin business college team was planned, but this game has been called off, it being hard for the business college team to get together for practice.

CHAPTER II.

JAMES SMITH, superintendent of the Latin-American Steamship company's docks, had arrived in response to the president's summons, conveyed to him by the telephone. Smith, known to his familiar as Jimmy, was a tall, gaunt, angular man, bearing all over him the stamp of western life. He was, in fact, from Colorado, where he began his active career by engaging in mining. Several times he had been in this direction, however, and after working with the dogged determination that was one of his traits until even his patience was exhausted he finally entered the employ of the steamship company in whose service he had risen to his present position, with headquarters in New York.

There was something about Smith that caused men, and women also, for that matter, to take to him on sight. The unbounded good nature, big heartedness and unselfishness beaming in his blue eyes and in his whitened smile were written in every line of his clean shaven face. Another thing that made him remarked by all who came in contact with him was his absolute imperturbability. In all his thirty-seven years of existence he never had been known to "get a more on," not even when a premature blast in a mine had sent the diggers bolting skittering for safety and carried death and suffering to many. Smith had walked tranquilly away amid the rain of rock and earth until it was all over. Then he had returned and organized the work of rescue, his placidity causing the others instinctively to look to him for direction. Nor was his speech more hurried than were his movements. He spoke but little, and then his words came in a quiet, even, distinct drawl. But his "got there" as quickly as most men, and a good deal quicker than some whose nerves were highly strung and with whom rapidity of action was necessary as breathing for him was possessed of keen powers of observation and common sense, an earnestness of purpose that gave his utterances weight and an integrity as unshakable as the rock of Gibraltar.

As a fitting, almost necessary, complement of such a nature he was endowed with a sense of humor that added not a little to the attraction he exercised for those who knew him sufficiently well to be able to appreciate his qualities of heart and mind.

He took a calm, all embracing survey of the office as he entered, looked over to Brooks' desk and saluted him with a cordial motion of the hand and instructed a boy to notify Captain Williams of his arrival. He was ushered immediately into the chief's presence. "That worthy, who, like his superintendent, was clean shaven, was seated at his desk in his shirt sleeves, and the whole room, despite the wide open windows, was thick from the smoke from an old blackened corn-cob pipe at which he was puffing vigorously. He was a bulky man, and the short, thick neck, the broad shoulders, the powerful, big jointed fingers and the muscles that stood out in bunches on the hairy arms disclosed by his rolled up shirt sleeves denoted that he possessed unusual physical strength. An ugly man to get into an argument with was Williams, one who, it needed no mind reader to judge, would be capable of following the word with a blow that would crush an ordinary opponent. For years, as Brooks had intimated, he had led the roughest life a man can lead, hammering by sheer brute strength a way to wealth by ways in which scruple had counted for nothing at all and expediency for a good deal, and his entrance upon a higher plane of civilization had not imparted much polish to his appearance, habits or speech, which were those of the old time sailing ship mariner, although of late years he had striven to conform more closely to the examples of refinement he witnessed in the only polite society he cared for, which was that of the family of his dead friend, Stanley Harris, who was general manager of the Latin-American line when he obtained control of it. He had a way of glaring at a person from under his bushy eyebrows with a scrutiny that seemed to read through and up and down him and made him most ill at ease under it.

He made his decisions promptly, authoritatively, after the manner of a man accustomed to command and to be obeyed without question, and he never changed them, at least in his business and administrative dealings. Add to all this a voice like a fother, the effect of which, when he raised it, was, as he knew full well, to make his subordinates quake and to intimidate others who had to do with him, and it will be realized that he lived up fully to his reputation of being a hard man.

For his quiet, unmovable and thoroughly capable desk superintendent he entertained a certain respect. He knew from experience that the man was not the least bit afraid or even disturbed by his bullying manner and his bellowing and that his glare, always squarely met, had no more effect upon him than it would have upon the bronze statue of Washington which stands sentinel on the steps of the sub-treasury in Wall street.

Smith lowered himself slowly and easily into a big armchair beside the president's desk.

"Two delegates from the Longshoremen's union were here just now," announced the captain. "They say the freight handlers are going to strike."

"Y-nas?" said Smith interrogatively.

"Yes, what do you know about it?"

"Nothing, except that they came to me with a demand for higher pay for the men. I referred them to you."

"Well, I didn't leave 'em any loopholes for doubt as to my position in the matter."

"You turned them down?"

"Turned 'em down? Of course. What do you think? Suppose I handed 'em a raise on a silver platter and bowed 'em out of the door?"

"I don't suppose anything about it. I'm asking for information."

"Them two blatherskites came awag-gering and blustering in here and said every last one of the men would quit tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock unless they got 3 cents more an hour. They wasn't swagging when they went out of here, I tell you. I pretty soon took the starch out of 'em."

A faint smile flitted over the superintendent's face, but he ventured no remark.

"I told 'em," Williams went on, "that I wouldn't give 'em a cent a century more and to strike and be—d. I also told 'em that any man who did go out would never get another job with this company, and, by Sam, he won't!"

"The captain's voice had risen to a roar, and he brought his fist down on the desk with such force that pens and pencils went flying in all directions and the ink splashed from the wells in their solid crystal stand.

"Then labor agitators ain't got no notion of the fitness of things. They ain't got a grasp on economic conditions for a cent. They got to do something to live without working, so every once in awhile they go to the union as pay 'em to be walking delegates, gives 'em some glib talk about their rights and advises 'em to strike for more money. Do they look around and try to find out whether an advance is warranted by the conditions? Nary a look. Do any of the men they hand out their advice to try to find out? Not on your life! They go ahead like a lot of sheep and strike and mangle and blame the result on capital."

Smith nodded.

"If they carry out their threat and quit," continued the captain, "you will clear all the strikers from the docks, throw 'em off if necessary, knock their silly blocks off, but tell them as wants to work that full protection will be given. I'll arrange with police headquarters to have a sufficient force of bluecoats on hand to guard our property and will also notify our docks at other ports to be prepared. You will fix up accommodations for the strike breakers in the sheds below until the trouble is over and make arrangements to bring men from the inland cities. In this matter you need spend no expense. Understood?"

"I guess so," replied the superintendent.

"Then it's up to you."

"Anything else you want to see me about?"

"Not now. You can get in touch with me any time you want me. You know about where I'm to be found."

Smith drew in his long legs, raised himself from the chair and took up his hat to go.

"See here, Smith," said the captain, his voice rising gradually to its former bellow. "It's high on to two o'clock years since I took my first vessel, the Sally Morn, out of Africa as master and owner, bound for the south sea islands to trade, and I've commanded my own ship every minute since and held my own against all sorts of lubbers as would have done me and done for me if they could. And do you think I'm going to be dictated to by any white livered gas bag of a crawling delegate who comes here holding a knife to my throat by threatening a turn-out without giving me a chance to meet it if I don't give in to his demands on the spot? No, sir, not by an all-fired sight! No, sir, not in a thousand years! I own this outfit from keel to main peak, and I can't run it my own way I'll scuttle it and go down with it. Understand? And if any man's looking for a fight with me he'll find me quick enough, and I'll break him, no matter who or what he is. Yes, sir, by Sam, sir, like this!"

Seizing a thick ruler on the desk, he snapped it without apparent effort, and as he sat glaring there with his disheveled hair, his ungainly, massive underjaw protruding and his big flat tightly clenched on the broken wood, causing the muscles of his arms to bulge like knots on a gnarled tree, he presented the embodiment of might and ferocity.

"I don't know but what you're right, Cap'n Williams," drawled the superintendent with his unchangeable equanimity. "Anyhow, you sure are entitled to do what you like with your own."

He went out and on his way to the office exit stopped at Brooks' desk.

"Well, how's things, boy?" he inquired with an interest so kindly that one might have thought there was nothing else in the world with which his mind was occupied and never could have suspected that there lay before him for immediate solution the problem of preparing for a great strike that threatened to tie up the business of one of the most important steamship lines in the country, with ramifications extending from Boston all around the coast of South America to San Francisco.

"Oh, so, so," answered Brooks. "By the bye, I'd be awful glad if you'd come up to supper tonight. Emma was saying only this morning that we hadn't seen anything of you for a week."

"That's so. I've got to square myself with Emma, though it hasn't been my fault altogether."

"Then we'll expect you to supper?"

"I can't promise, because I've a deal to do between now and this evening, but I'll come if I can."

"So long, Jim."

"So long."

And Smith sauntered out to attend to one of the greatest emergencies he had ever been called upon to meet in his life.

Typhoid Fever Antidote.

A French chemist has recently proclaimed that elder is an antidote for typhoid fever. The acid in it is the agent, as it destroys the germs. Elder in Europe is more generally used as a beverage than in this country. Germans appear to prefer elder after it becomes sour, but Americans usually prefer it while it is sweet.

The Best Food for Workers.

The best food for those who work with hand or brain is never high priced.

The best example of this is found in Quaker Oats. It stands at the top among foods that supply nourishment and vigor, without taxing the digestion, and yet it is the least expensive food one can eat.

This great food value and low cost make it an ideal food for families who want to get the greatest good from what they eat.

Laborers, factory or farm hands, fed plentifully on Quaker Oats will work better and with less fatigue than if fed on almost any other kind of food. All of these facts were proved and very interesting information about human food were gathered by Professor Fisher of Yale University in 1905. In addition to the regular package Quaker Oats is packed in large sized family packages either with or without cream dishes.

KING FLEES BOMBS; GUARD IS DOUBLED

MANUEL TAKEN FROM PALACE UNDER GUARD, SAYS LONDON REPORT.

FEIGNS ILLNESS TO ESCAPE

Police of Lisbon Investigate the Conspiracy and Evidence Alarms Rulers and His Aids—Bomb Exploded in Front of Church.

London, Oct. 20.—According to a report received in this city, King Manuel of Portugal, who has been reported ill, is in reality hiding from plotters seeking to take his life.

Information of a plot to explode a dynamite bomb at the royal palace is said to have reached the police.

The guard about the palace was doubled and police agents began an investigation. Reports made by them are said to have been of such an alarming character that the king was prevailed upon to conceal his whereabouts. He was taken from the palace secretly by body guards. After he had reached his hiding place it was announced that the king was seriously ill, according to a prearranged plan, it is said.

Bomb Blast at Lisbon Church.

Lisbon, Oct. 20.—A bomb was exploded in front of the Church of St. Louis. The windows in the residence adjacent were shattered.

King Manuel's physician announced that the king, who is suffering from an intestinal trouble, accompanied with fever, should recover within ten days unless unforeseen complications develop.

CORNWALLIS' FALL CELEBRATED

Yorktown Commemorates Anniversary—Patriotic Exercises Are Held.

Yorktown, Va., Oct. 20.—On the historic ground where Lord Cornwallis sought the doom of British rule over what is now part of the United States 128 years ago, patriotic Americans gathered together here to celebrate the anniversary of that famous surrender which put an end to the revolutionary war. The exercises were held under the auspices of the Descendants of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, the Yorktown Historical society of the United States and the citizens of York county.

Hardly had the day begun before the exercises opened with the marking of 15 historic spots by a special committee from the Yorktown Historical society.

The principal feature of the morning was a parade of the school children of York and surrounding counties. Forming on the banks of the river just before noon, the children marched to the court house, thence down Main street, one of the few thoroughfares in the village, the crumbling custom house, thence to the rear of the great monument erected at Yorktown on the occasion of the centennial. There flowers were strewn on the graves of the soldiers who fell at Yorktown, and on that of Thomas Nelson, Jr. The parade then moved to the grandstand at the Nelson house where the exercises of the day were concluded.

Representative J. Hampton Moore of Pennsylvania, president of the Atlantic Deep Waterways association, delivered the principal address.

$35,000 REALIZED FROM TAGGING

Chicago's Charitable Institutions Reap Rich Benefit Through Tag Day.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Thirty-five thousand dollars in pennies, nickels, silver and bills was paid by Chicagoans to the several hundred pretty girls and women who "tagged" for charity's sake.

The man or woman seen on the street anywhere within the loop not wearing from one to twenty tags was an oddity and not allowed to enjoy the distinction long without being besieged by girls at every corner and asked to buy a tag and help some one of the 16 charities whose fair representatives stood all day long taking in money for use at some home, hospital or asylum.

COSSACKS ARRIVE IN FINLAND

Russia Sends Troops as a Preventative Measure.

Helsinki, Oct. 20.—A force of Cossacks, numbering 125, have arrived at Tavasthus. Other companies of Cossacks are expected to arrive at Frederikshamn and Helsingfors today.

These troops are the advance guard of the force dispatched by the Russian government to Finland as a preventive measure against any movement on the part of the Finns to oppose Russia's action in enforcing her demands for a $4,000,000 contribution for national defense.

Outlook Bad for Carriage Builders.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Automobiles have displaced carriages to such an extent that carriage builders either will be obliged to retire from business or devote their attention to the construction of automobile bodies. In effect, this was the statement made by Maurice Connolly of Dubuque, Ia., president of the Carriage Builders' National Association of the United States, which convened in its thirty-seventh annual meeting in this city.

Loses Life in Fire.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 20.—The fire that destroyed the Denver hotel in Ballard caused the death of Edwin Dutch. Three other men were seriously, perhaps fatally injured.

The Philosopher of Folly.

"When philosophers fall out," says the Philosopher of Folly, "honest men get a ride in the 'ragon.'"

Old Homes Made New

If your home is getting a dingy appearance beginning to look ill-kept, it's about time you did something about it. Don't stop being ashamed of the worn and faded linoleum or oil-cloth.

Linoleum Lustre—which has no drawbacks of varnish—will restore the original brilliancy to hall worn out linoleum or oil-cloth and make it last for years.

Or if you put down new linoleum and give it one coat of Linoleum Lustre, it will be preserved indefinitely just as it comes from the store.

A child can apply it. It dries overnight. Does not crack or blister.
